O Allah، I ask You for good through Your knowledge and I ask You for ability through Your power and I beg (Your favour) out of Your infinite bounty. Surely, You have power and I have none. You know everything and I know not. You are the Great Knower of all things. O Allah، if، in Your sublime knowledge، this matter is good for my Faith (Deen), for my livelihood and for the consequences of my affairs, then ordain it for me and make it easy for me and bless me therein. But if, in Your knowledge, this matter is bad for my Faith (Deen), for my livelihood and for the consequences of my affairs, then turn it away from me and turn me away there from and ordain for me the good wherever it be and cause me to be pleased therewith.

Note: While reciting this Dua, on reaching the highlighted words, one should think of and mention one's problem in any language. Thereafter, do whatever one feels suitable. Mighty Throne. Whatever Allah has wished has happened and whatever He has not wished will certainly not happen.

O Allah ﷺ I seek refuge in You from the evil of myself and the evil of all the living upon whom You have control. Verily, my Lord is on the right path.

<td>Someone came to tell Hadhrat Abu Darda ﷺ that his house was on fire. Hadhrat Abu Darda ﷺ [without any concern] replied that his was certainly not on fire. Allah ﷺ will never do so, because I have heard from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ that if a person recites these words at the beginning of the day, no calamities will befall that person till the evening, and if the person recites these words in the evening then no calamities will befall that person till the morning.</td>

In another tradition, it is stated that calamities will not befall him, wife, children and whatever he owns. Hadhrat Abu Darda ﷺ said: “In the morning I recited these words, therefore, how can my house be on fire.” He then said to the people. “Let's go and see.” Together with the people they went to wards his house. It was seen that his entire street was on fire and all the houses around Hadhrat Abu Darda’s were burnt, but, amidst this, his house was safe and sound. (Al-Azkaar-Nawawi, Pg. 79)

O Allah ☦, divert my restlessness in the grave into peace, O Allah ☦ let me receive Your mercy by means of the Holy Quraan Shareef and make it my guide as well as a source of light, guidance and grace for me. O Allah ☦, revive my memory of whatever I have forgotten from the Holy Quraan, grant me understanding of whatever part of it I know not, enable me to recite it during hours of day and night and make it my main argumentative support (in all matters), O Nourisher of the worlds.
